"Reasonable Restraint" Clause Attacked by Interstate Committee in Report.

DANGERS POINTED OUT.

Unwilling to Repose Undefined Powers in Court—Want Sherman Law Changes.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—The Supreme Court's so-called modification of the Sherman Anti-Trust law to invoke "the rule of reason" in decisions upon restraints of trade is attacked in vigorous terms in a report presented to the Senate by the Interstate Commerce Committee today, which points out the dangers of "uncontrolled and unguided judicial discretion" and makes emphatic demand for amendments to the Sherman law to remove from the courts the power to determine what are "reasonable" restraints of trade.

SUFFRAGE HIKERS ON LAST STRETCH IN DRIVING RAIN

"Gen." Jones's Army Proposes to Camp To-night Eight Miles From Washington.

LAUREL, Md., Feb. 27.—A downpour of rain did not dispel the joyous expectation of the suffragist army to-day—the realization that they are now on the "home stretch" of their hike from New York to Washington. The hikers took to the road at 9 o'clock en route to Hyattsville.

"General" Rosalie Jones wants to reach the Maryland village, which is only about eight miles from Washington, some time this afternoon. If the "army" appears fresh enough after this twelve-mile march, "General" Jones may push on to Baltimore, a couple of miles nearer the national capital.

The suffragettes want to make a show as possible to-morrow when they march into Washington, and do not want too long a hike along muddy roads before they tramp through the city streets.

This was the second rainy day the marchers have encountered since leaving New York, but the enthusiasm because the hike was almost concluded overcame the disadvantage of the water soaked roads.

"A little rain doesn't bother us in the least," said Col. Craft. "After going through the tortures of marching through Maryland mud this sort of weather and the roads we now have ahead of us are easy."

Will Need Help Soon. (From the Hazardous Kentucky.) A meeting of our citizens will be held in a day or two to take steps to rescue Jim Pickens from the old cistern that he fell in a night or two ago while going home from the moonshine still on Market Ridge. This is a matter that should be attended to as soon as is convenient, because the water is rising.

USURER FREE ON $500 FINE.

"Misinterpreted Law," Says Counsel for Loan Shark Brodie.

Jacob Brodie, who was convicted in the Court of Special Sessions a week ago of usury, was fined $500 by Justice Russell, Zeller and McInerney to-day. Brodie, who formerly had an office at No. 116 Nassau street, was convicted of exacting $10 interest on a loan of $75 he made to a policeman in May last. His counsel, Assemblyman Aaron Levy, said in Brodie's behalf that his client was one of a dozen money lenders who had misinterpreted the law.

Leo Kohn, manager of the Acme Security Company at No. 143 Broadway, pleaded guilty of charging $11 interest on a $40 loan for four months. He was fined $250.

SMALLEST REPUBLIC.
(From the Chicago Tribune.) The smallest republic is not San Marino, as usually supposed, but the diminutive Island Tavoria, about seven and one-half miles off the coast of Sardinia. This island is only one and one-fifth miles wide, and its whole population numbers but 56. In 1884 Tavoria was granted independence by Carl Albert, and a certain Bartoloni assumed the title of King under the name of Paul I. He died in May, 1902. In 1902 the Tavorians proclaimed the republic, and, according to their Constitution, a President is elected every ten years.
